Article 10: Voting procedures

The election for the positions within the Executive Committee shall take place by list. Every list in the election for the positions within the Executive Committee shall be proposed by at least three (3) Members and be composed in accordance with art. 2 of these regulations. Each Member shall support one list only. If a Member supports more than one list, none of its expressions of support shall be considered valid.

Elections shall be conducted by secret ballot. However, if the number of candidates is equal to the number of vacant positions, the General Assembly may decide to proceed otherwise.

For the election for the positions within the Executive Committee, absolute majority (more than 50%) of the valid votes cast is necessary for a list to be elected. If there are more than two lists, whichever obtains the lowest number of votes is eliminated after each ballot until only two lists are left.

In case of a tied vote in any elections of any body, two new ballots shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure set forth in this article. If the tied vote remains, the relevant position shall remain vacant until a new elective General Assembly convenes to proceed with new elections according to these Statutes.

Blank ballot papers, invalid votes or electronic votes manipulated in any way as well as abstentions shall be disregarded when calculating the majority.

Each candidate may appoint one observer to be present during the counting of votes.
